Facts About the "Boehling Special"

Train leaves Elba Station promptly at 10 o'clock this Returning, leaves Washington at 9 o'clock to-night, arriving in Richmond at midnight.

Tickets to the ball park will be sold on the train. Price for the round trip, $2.75, not including admission to the ball park.

Walter Taylor, traveling traffic agent of the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac, will be in charge of the special. Kessnich's Band will accompany the excursionists, and will furnish music on the train and at the ball park in Washington.

This will be "Richmond Day" in Washington. Joe Boehling, native son of Virginia, and premier pitcher of the American League, will essay to show about 1,000 of the home folks how he won his reputation by leading Ty Cobb and the rest of Hughie Jennings's Tigers into camp behind his southpaw slants.

An excursion over the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad will leave Elba Station this morning to carry the enthusiasts from Richmond and hereabouts to the District of Columbia. To a man they will go laden with messages of cheer for Boehling. Kessnich's band will head the procession, and will make sweet music at the ball park in Washington and on the train. The excursion is due to arrive in the capital city about 1 o'clock. Returning, the special will leave Washington at 9 o'clock and be back in Richmond by midnight.

Friends of Boehling in Alexandria are making up a purse to present the young Virginian with a suitable trophy. From every section of the State fans will travel to be on hand for the big day. In Washington they are making arrangements to entertain the sons of the Old Dominion in royal style. Automobiles will meet the special, and the fans will be driven through the city and shown the sights. Bill Lehman, an attache of the Washington club, will board the train at Fredericksburg to sell tickets to the Richmond section of the grandstand. Nothing has been left undone by the officials in Washington.

McGRAW STUNG BY TINKER?

Arthur Fromme, the former star twirler of the Cincinnati Reds, who has been decidedly "off his feed," since he joined the pitching squad of the New York Ginats in the trade, by which the Cincinnati Reds received from Manager McGraw Inicider Groh, who has become one of the league's bensations as the regular second sacker of the Reds; Josh Devore, the fleet right fielder and Pitcher Leon Ames. All three of the former Ginats have been performing in great style for Manager Tinker, while Fromme has apparently been unable to strike his proper stride. There have been games in which he pitched good ball for McGraw, but on those days the Giants fell down behind him.

Nose Out in Closing Moments. Tuesday night said that Boehling would not pitch to-day. Clark Grifflith was quick to deny this report. "Not only will Boehling pitch," said Grifflith, "but I predict that the "Richmend Thunderbolt will win" Every man visiting Washington will hope that the prediction of the Washington mananager will come true. If sincere and united rooting will turn the trick, Boehling is sure of success to-day, and Washington may as well chalk up another game won. Tickets may be purchased this morning at Elba Station. FEW CHANGES IN FOOTBALL RULES Committee Completes Its Work, Making Only Technical Alterations in Code.

New York, July 30.—Intercollegiate football rules as promulgated by the football rules committee to-day show few changes in the gridiron code for the season of 1913. The majority of the alterations are technical, and will have little effect upon the game. The most important change is the rule which permits the kicker to stand at any distance from the line of scrimmage when kicking instead of at least the yards behind the scrimmage line. Under the new regulations, it is expected the quick kicking from directly behind the forwards will be added. behind the forwards will be a playing Richmond.

Norfolk, Va., July 30.—Richmond made it three shtraights from Norfolk to-day, but Sieve Griffin had to call on "Doc" Ayers for the third time within four days to win. And Doc was not any too pirased either. That does not mean that the big pitcher sulked, because he did not but he looked like he was tired, and he told a friend in the bleachers that he needed a rest. It was reported around the field that Ayers field a mild protest with Griffin before he left the bench to warm up, but this was denied.

Strain went well for five innings, but the Tars were pounding nim at intervals. The locals ran banes like old men, probably because the mircury was novering around the hundred mark. Steve Griffin sent Harry Griffin to warm up, and after the latter was ready and started for the box to relieve Strain, he changed his mind and sent Ayers in. The Doctor had only five minutes to get ready and appeared tired.
